Kingwood has an excellent reputation as a specialist support provider of services for people with autism, learning disabilities, mental health issues and Asperger’s Syndrome.

Our aim is to support adults to develop new skills and live independently both at home and in the community. The work can be challenging but the rewards make every day meaningful.

Experience is not necessary, full training is provided.

If you have the right values and an interest in supporting people to achieve their goals, we would love to hear from you.
